

A REFLECTION OF POTTER CLUB
on the occasion of
ITS EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

Here we are, Lord, to honor EDWARD ELDRED POTTER... and a life exemplified by integrity and vision, high aspirations and lofty achievement, pride in country and ultimate sacrifice...his life resonating in our minds, yes, but even more in our hearts.

Here we are, Lord, to honor EDWARD ELDRED POTTER
CLUB... a fellowship established in bonding brotherhood and lives of service to others...across two centuries impacting our collegiate years in a myriad of character-building ways.

Here we are, Lord, POTTERMEN...(and significant others) reveling in our bountiful memories of our collegiate past with friends, some, alas, no longer with us; gathered here tonight appreciative of our opportunity to rekindle friendships in the present, keenly aware of future opportunities and challenges awaiting us to be met all ways and always befitting our association with Edward Eldred Potter: We in him...He in us. Amen

October 1, 2011

(Rev.) David Manly, '52

David E. Manly